

11 19 2018

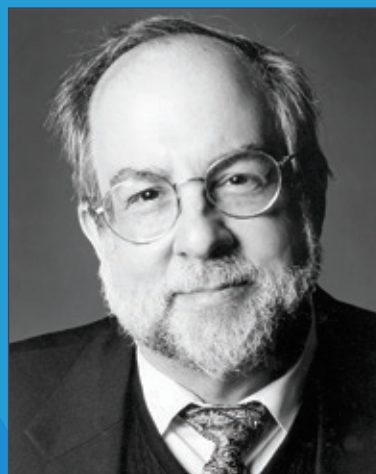

Free and open to the public.

Rabbi Ed Feinstein

Valley Beth Shalom

The View from the Edge of Modernity

As latecomers to European culture, Jews gained a unique perspective on the impact of modernity on the human condition. The great 20th century Jewish thinkers—Martin Buber, Abraham Joshua Heschel, Joseph Baer Soloveitchik—each rooted their interpretations of Judaism in an insightful critique of the alienation and soullessness of contemporary life. Their insights resonate today even more than when they were first presented.

Monday
November 19, 2018
7:00 p.m.
Faulkner Gallery
Santa Barbara Public Library

For further information contact:

Richard D. Hecht
ariel@religion.ucsb.edu

Maeve Devoy
maeve@cappscenter.ucsb.edu
(805) 893-2317

שלו יעסוק בלימד הוא שוכח