

11 17 2019

Free and open to the public.

Ayelet Gundar Goshen

Tel Aviv University

The Liar

Ayelet Gundar Goshen is a clinical psychologist and award-winning author.

Her first novel, One Night, Markovitch, won the Sapir Prize in 2012 for debut novels, the Italian Adei-Wizo Prize, and the French Adei-Wizo Prize. The novel was long-listed for the Italian Sinbad Prize, and for Grand prix des lectrices de Elle. It has been translated into 14 languages. Gundar-Goshen's second novel, Waking Lions, won the 2017 Jewish Quarterly-Wingate Prize. The New York Times Book Review picked Waking Lions as "Editors' Choice," and The Wall Street Journal selected it for its "Best Summer Reads" list.

Books will be available for purchase and signing after the talk, courtesy of Chaucer's Books.

Sunday
November 17, 2019

3:00 p.m.

Loma Pelona Conference Center UC Santa Barbara

www.jewishbookcouncil.org

For further information contact:

Richard D. Hecht
ariel@religion.ucsb.edu

Maeve Devoy
maeve@cappscenter.ucsb.edu
(805) 893-2317

שלו יעסוק בלימד הוא שוכח