

05 09 2021

Rabbi William Cutter

Yehuda Amichai's Jerusalem

Many believe Yehuda Amichai was "poet laureate" of Israel and the spiritual chronicler of Jerusalem's meaning. William Cutter (Hebrew Union College) will discuss several of Amichai's Jerusalem poems and consider the rich and complex treatment he gives Jerusalem, framed in love, inquiry, whimsy, and sometimes disappointment. For Amichai, there truly were two Jerusalems: the heavenly and the earthly.

Chaucer's Books
3321 State St • 682-6787
www.chaucersbooks.com

Sunday
May 9, 2021
3:00 p.m. PST
Connect on Zoom:
ucsb.zoom.us/j/89849719110

For further information contact:

Richard D. Hecht
ariel@religion.ucsb.edu

Maeve Devoy
maeve@cappscenter.ucsb.edu
(805) 893-2317